BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS.

INSPECTOR GENERAL HENRY S. TOWNSEND RESIGNS.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction Announces a Lot of kinson announced the resignation of

After complimentary remarks to the retiring inspector by Mr. Atkinson, the atter gentleman proposed that Mr. T. H. Gibson, who was formerly a teacher on Kauai and more recently one of the leaders in educational matters here, be recommended to the position.

Superintendent Atkinson recommended that Mr. Charles Baldwin and Mr. S. Kellinoi be appointed normal instructors at a salary of $250 per month, the appointees to pay their traveling expenses. in proposing this change Mr. Atkinson said that the question had been carefully gone over by the board and that it was thought best under the new conditions to arrange for the salaries as proposed. This view had been taken by the auditor, whose opinion would go far in questions of finance under popuar government.

Upon the recommendation of Mr. Atkinson, Mr. Townsend was at once appointed to be principal of the Heretania school (Kaahumnu street). The following appointments were also an-wounded men by Admiral Seymour, to keep them from falling into the bands of the Chinese, is untrue. He had talked with many of the refurees taken to Japan on the Peking and if anything so terrible had happened they would have spoken of it. Dr. G. P. Smith, a through passenger in the Peking, who was in charge of the hospital in Tientsin at the time Seymour's column reached there in retreat, also brands the published statement as a fabrication. He also thinks that the massacre of the legations, s.a. Peking is greatly exag-
